Lloyd Moylan (1893-1963)

Lloyd Moylan was born in St. Paul, Minnesota in 1893. He was a painter who specialized in Southwest Indian subjects and was also a museum curator and muralist, whose work is in the Museum of New Mexico and the Penrose Public Library.

He studied at the Minneapolis Art Institute, the Art Students League in New York, and the Broadmore Art Academy in Colorado Springs. From 1929 to 1931, he taught at the Broadmore Academy and later became Curator of the Museum of Navajo Ceremonial Art in Santa Fe. From the time he attended the Broadmore Academy, he made numerous trips into Arizona and New Mexico where he sketched and painted the Hispanic and Indian population.
